

I want to lodge a complaint. Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. I think this is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. I also think it is one-sided electioneering that is inappropriate (if not illegal) for a company licensed by the public.

As a broadcaster, Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge. By law, Sinclair is obligated to serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
